

impact
SQUARED

STORY SLAM

PLEASE JOIN US!

This fun evening showcases the contributions of Detroit's nonprofit and small business communities and the major impact they make across the city!

The Impact² Story Slam is a friendly storytelling competition where semi-finalists get 5 minutes each to tell a story of the impact their organization is having in the community.

THE SEMI-FINALISTS:

The event is free. Register as soon as possible by visiting goo.gl/6Mt6sM, as space is limited.

THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 2018
6:00-8:30PM

GEM THEATRE
333 MADISON STREET
DETROIT, MI 48226

A stellar panel of judges and members of the audience will choose three final winners who will each receive pro bono services from local small businesses. This is Detroit's only competition focused exclusively on the nonprofit community!

So come on out, cheer them on, and cast your votes for the winners! (Your organization may even want to apply in the next round!)

Master of Ceremonies:
Sommer Woods
VP of External Relations, Marketing & Communications for Q-Line

More information about Impact² can be found at jfmconsulting.net

JFM CONSULTING GROUP
Social Change through Strategy, Planning, Research & Evaluation